

TEAM FEES FAQ'S

WHAT DO THESE FEES COVER?

- Team fees for out of town tournaments include: Tournament registration fees along with the food, hotel and mileage allowance paid to the coach This the same for the out of town non-tournament games (friendlies for Academy teams and State League play for the Select teams).
- Team fees for home tournaments are the registration fees only. There are no fees for home Academy friendlies or Select State League games.
- SSA Savannah United does not profit from tournament/travel fees. All monies are paid out to cover the tournament registration fees and coaches expense allowances. .

WHO PAYS TOURNAMENT/TRAVEL FEES?

- All players on the roster must pay for their FULL portion of the tournament/travel fees, whether they attend the tournament/out of town game or not. We do not refund money for missed games.
- Each Team Manager collects these fees and pays the tournament registration fees directly to the tournaments and coaches expenses directly to the coach.

WHAT HAPPENS IF THERE ARE OUTSTANDING FEES OWED?

- Any fees outstanding will result in the player card being pulled and your player will not be able to train or play in games until the account is up to date.

IS THERE A REFUND POLICY FOR CANCELED EVENTS?

- Should a festival get canceled due to inclement weather during the Fall season, that amount will be credited towards the Spring team fees. If the cancelation occurs during the Spring season you will be reimbursed at the end of spring season.
- Tournaments have varying refund policies any tournament registration fee refunds would be determined by the tournament's policy. However, all the coaches allowance portion would be refunded in it's entirety.